SPEAKER: Is that all, Mr. Clerk? Is this motion, Senator Mahoney, with the additional names, is this important that it should be taken care of before we finish this bill or would you want to wait? You will wait. All right, then we will go on and there is another amendment on the desk by Senator Warner.

CLERK: OK. Mr. President, Page 3, section (4) subsection (3) strike the words "and each amendment to a legislative bill or resolution". Signed Senator Warner.

SPEAKER: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I move adoption of the amendment. I concur totally that every general piece of legislation that a lobbyist is working on, or a Resolution, or a bill ought to be reported but it would appear to me that if you were to apply to each amendment that might be proposed it would become an almost nightmare to try to keep track and I should like to amend...Mr. Clerk. Mr. Clerk... Clerk.
